

Helsinki 30 March 2017

VHF Group AS acquires Finnish company Insalko Oy.

The acquisition will strengthen Insalkos position in Finland as they now will be a part of the largest radio communication group in the Nordic region.

Insalko provide the Finnish market with equipment from the leading manufacturers like Sepura, Icom, Damm, Savox and Procom.

For VHF Group this acquisition will lead to geographical expansion and will from now on be a Nordic supplier of top brands.

Tom Ericsson, former sales director at Insalko, will take over the position as CEO for the company and will in addition be a shareholder.

"This is a perfect marriage that will benefit all parties", comments Morten Stomperud, CEO of VHF Group.

Tom Ericsson adds, "Insalko will have a great advantage of being a part of VHF Group with technical and financial strength".
